

US CITIZEN AND IMMIGRATION PROCESS: I800A

It is now time to initiate the immigration process by completing the I800A form and supporting evidence for US Citizenship and Immigration Services (UCSIS).

Overview

The Hague Convention on Protection of Children in Co-operation in Respect of Intercountry Adoption (the Convention) entered into force with respect to the U.S. on April 1, 2008. The Convention strengthens protections for children, birth parents and prospective adoptive parent(s), and establishes internationally agreed upon rules and procedures for adoptions between countries that have a treaty relationship under the Convention. The Convention provides a framework for member countries to work together to ensure that children are provided with permanent, loving homes, that adoptions take place in the best interests of a child, and that the abduction, sale or traffic in children is prevented.

The Form I800-A (Application for Determination of a Suitability to Adopt a Child from a Convention Country, to initiate the immigration process if you intend to adopt a child who resides in a Convention country. Form I-800A and supporting evidence are required for USCIS to determine your eligibility and suitability to adopt a Convention child.

There are two parts to the Immigration process for your child: 1) I800-A and 2) I-800. Families submit the I-800A along with supporting evidence, to petition the federal government to determine you eligible to adopt a child. After being granted I-800A approval AND you have formally accepted the referral of a child(ren), WHFC will then submit the I-800 petition to determine the child's eligibility for classification as a Convention adoptee. You will receive more information regarding the I-800 later in your process. You are welcome to read more about the whole process at: www.uscis.gov/adoption.

Steps to Complete the I-800A Petition

Please be aware that these are our best recommendations based on our past experiences for filling out these forms.

1. Read the I-800A instructions thoroughly.

This could prevent the need for time-consuming corrections in the future. The most current Form I-800A Petition to Classify Convention Adoptee as an Immediate Relative can be found at <https://www.uscis.gov/sites/default/files/document/forms/i-800a.pdf>

2. Complete the I-800A forms. For further recommendations, see Recommendations for Completing the I-800A Form, below.

3. Review other required documents.

a. Review “Checklist of Required Initial Evidence” at the following link:

<https://www.uscis.gov/i-800a> Depending on your individual situation, you will be required to include documents which may include: copies of birth certificates, copies of marriage certificates, copies of divorce decrees, evidence of any prior unlawful incidents. WHFC. should already have all related documents but double check the list to be certain.

b. Payments can be made in the form of a check or credit card payment. Make checks payable to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security or use the G-1450 Form for a credit card payment (<https://www.uscis.gov/g-1450>). The fee is: $920

c. Scan a completed packet of all documents in one PDF to Christina/Jessica for a full review of your packet.

4. Mail the documents to the attention of Christina/Jessica.

a. Make a copy of your complete submission to retain for your records.

c. We strongly encourage you to use a courier service which offers traceable and quicker delivery options to send your application materials to us.

5. You will receive a letter acknowledging receipt of the documents (I-797C, Notice of Action), then a letter giving you a biometrics appointment. For current processing times: <https://egov.uscis.gov/processing-times/>

6. Your petition and evidence will be adjudicated. If some information is lacking, your officer will issue a Request for Evidence (RFE) stating the problem and instructions and due date for correction. Please email a copy of the RFE to either Christina Cetrone (Burundi, Colombia) or Jessica Ellison (Philippines) as soon as possible.

7. When your petition is approved, you will receive a letter labeled “I-797, Notice of Action”. This is your I-800A Approval.

Your Responsibilities

1. Please email a copy of the I-800A Approval to either Christina Cetrone (Burundi or Colombia) or Jessica Ellison (Philippines) as soon as possible. Failure to do so may cause a significant delay in your adoption process.

2. Please make note of your expiration date and track it. It is your responsibility to track your documents and keep them up to date. You should initiate the extension process about four months prior to the expiration date. It is necessary to keep your I800A approval current throughout your adoption process.

3. Inquire with Christina or Jessica about the next steps once you receive your I-800A approval.

None of these documents need to be notarized

- Birth certificates that include your parents' names. If you cannot obtain a birth certificate, you may submit a photocopy of your unexpired U.S. passport as evidence of birth or Certificate of Naturalization as evidence of birth.
- If you have changed your name legally, submit a court record as documentation of that change (if your last name has changed due to marriage, your marriage certificate will serve as proof of your legal name change). Please be aware that if you use a name different than the name on your birth certificate, for example you fill out documents using your middle name as your first name, but never legally changed your name, CIS might request that you clarify the discrepancy in your paperwork. Clarification may require filling out a new application or legally changing your name.

- Marriage Certificate: If you had a marriage annulled and your new marriage certificate does not include the annulled marriage in the amount of times you have been married, CIS might request an amended copy.
- Divorce Decree(s) must be the final divorce decree indicating the date the divorce became (not becomes) final.
- If you have had a history with Child Protective Services, or substance abuse, (even if you were never arrested), CIS may require additional documentation to support "appropriate rehabilitation." If this applies to you please speak to your social worker.
